DEDICATION

Mr. Davis

Mr. White

Mr. Homann

To these five men, who have entered the armed service of their country; and who are now serving in the various theatres of war, defending those principles for which America has always stood, and upheld since the landing of our Pilgrim fathers--- we, the Class of '43, gratefully dedicate this issue of the Iris.

Mr. Bell

Mr. Smith

To all those men, now in the service of our country, who have attended Highland Public School in the years gone by, this page is most humbly dedicated. We only regret that we can't do more for them. As far as our files show, this list of names is complete, up to the time of the IRIS publication. Be assured that if someone's name has been omitted, it has been done unintentionally, and we can but hope to be forgiven for the error. You're doing a grand job for Uncle Sam, and we live in the hope that---WE'LL SEE YOU SOON!!

PROPHECY

May 30, 1953---Washington, D.C.

And down the steps of the White House strides the Honorable Senator James Edward Gindler, who has been busily engaged trying to convince Congress to pass a bill sanctioning Senatorial Pool Parlors in the White House. At the foot of the steps we see "Ace" Blattner sweeping vigorously, dressed in the traditional white. Recognizing each other, the two find a comfortable bench and sit down;--to talk over "old times!"

A friendly peanut vendor, in his little red hat, accosts the gentlemen, asking them to partake of "Heim's roasted toasted pstachios". He tells them that Corda Lee is now working as the private secretary to Admiral Robert Kulbe, who is sponsoring the re-election of Udell Wehling and Lester Gentry, co-mayors of the metropolis of Alhambra, Illinois.

Purchasing a magazine, the gentlemen behold the lavishly attired form of Roland Paul Harris, now modeling for Esquire. In the advertising section appears patent No. 45987692, the latest in no clutch autoplanes being manufactured by the philanthropist, Kenneth "No Clutch" Stuckwisch, who employs the daring Wayne Hug as his test pilot. In the feature section, they see "Models by Abert", with a short verse by Laverne Casper. The 'Practitioner of Highway Sanitation' explains to the illustrious Senator that the beautiful model is none other than Norma Sudhoff, who succeeded Betty Petty. The movie section enthalls the august statesman, as he reads of the exploits of the three flooges, Curly "Red" Plocher, Larry "Ed" Zobrist, and "Moe" Metzger. The nation's top billed movie is, "I Vant To Be Alone", starring Marion Leutwiler.

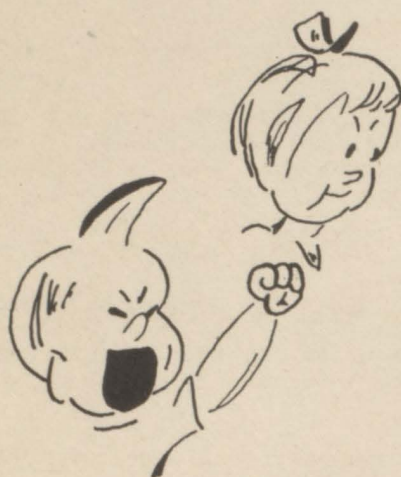

The Senator then tires of the magazine, and flips on his portable radio. The good gentlemen hear the long, liquid tones of Alfred Kaufman telling the public of Schmetter's Soft Soap, 'the soap that Spellies success'. The program features "Hotch" Isert and his singing wolf hound, direct from Carniege Hall. Perturbed by the incessant static, the Senator then tunes in to station M I N K, owned and managed by the loquacious Gladys Abendroth. A round table discussion is in progress, with Lyla Thurnau, Helen Stocker, and Jeanette Thurnau speaking on the relative merits of the 'Basin Street Boogie', and the 'Two O'Clock Jump'. A sudden news flash interrupts the discussion, as Dale Schwend announces that Orville "Chub" Plocher has broken the world's speed record for hauling milk non-stop from Flatbush to 'Frisco in his famous little green truck. Pensively turning the dial, the Gentleman in White hears the melodious strains of "Pansy, Make Up Your Mind", as played by June Hanselman and her 100 man orchestra. This was enough for the Senator and the radio was cast aside.

The Senator tells the Sanitation Executive that his most loyal boosters are Jane Schmiedeke, foreman on a riveting gang, Marion Feutz, of the famous Powers Models, (third row, second from the end), 'Tugboat' Hebrank, who has the heart of a Skipper, and three beautiful housewives, Evelyn Brinkman, Blanche Kuhner, and Agnes Tschannen.

The Pride of the Department retorts that Leona Casper is his most satisfied customer. Her Time just seems to Fly. The Empressario of Avenue Hygene relates that most of his time is spent in front of 3838 Hairpin Curve, the home of Jane Holliger, where finding the littered wreckage of permanent wave machines is a daily occurrence. In parting, the revered statesman invites his old friend to witness the launching of the new Liberty ship, designed by Kenneth "Muscles" Horn, and to be launched just 30 minutes after the laying of the keel. Suddenly, the friends are disturbed by a wolfish howl as a sound truck comes into view. A blaring voice then announces the coming attraction at a local theatre, as being that magnanimous epistle, "A Wolf on the Loose", written by, produced by, directed by, and starring Paul Siegrist.

And Lloyd Vaughn Hunkins, well-----

CLASS HISTORY

1939---

and fifty-three typically "green" Freshmen tripped through the portals of Highland High for the first time. With Mr. Homann as class sponsor, we went merrily through our first year of high school, presenting a Freshman class party, and an all-school Valentine party. The crowning of Betty Raeber, a Junior, as Queen of Hearts, proved to be the highlight of our party and of the year. As Freshmen, we were well represented in sports and the various school organizations.

1940---

during our Sophomore year, we really entered into the spirit of things;-again giving a class and a Christmas all-school party. Besides these parties, our illustrious class participated in all the other school activities. Another planned activity was a sleigh ride, but as Mr. Snowman failed us, we couldn't have a snow party. The Sophomore boys claimed six athletic letters;-four in football and two in basketball. Mr. Dintleman, the present principal of Fulton High School, acted as our class sponsor.

1941---

Our Junior year was one packed with activity and fun. We had our first opportunity to present a class play to the public and found the audience pleased at the close of the curtain. Miss V. Wildi had done a fine job of direction. Another big event of this year was the Junior-Senior Banquet, with patriotism as the theme. Everyone spent an enjoyable evening in the appropriately decorated ballroom. We had a high representation in the sports field, with four men receiving basketball letters and four receiving football letters.

Seniors---and realizing that there remained but one short year of high school, forty-five stalwarts of the Class of '43 strode back to the old Stomping Grounds, painting a picture of glee, remorse, and meditation. With the announcement of a Scrap Drive, to be held during October, the Seniors entered wholeheartedly into the round-up of all available scrap metal in the community. Salvaging an old Chevrolet truck about to be dumped, several boys toured the countryside, bringing in tons of metal for the grade school, as well as other high school classes. Despite loss of time in rescuing metal for these others, we managed to nose out the Juniors in the final tonnage, having a total of 41,000 pounds to 29,000 for the Juniors. Melvin Reinacher, was high individual, having over 9000 pounds. For our diligent efforts, we received a scrap party in February plus an ample reward in coin for our hard work. Late in September the Senior class decided to purchase class rings. After viewing the selections put before us by the two representatives, the class chose a suitable ring from Herff-Jones. On November 19 of this year, the people of Highland were privileged to witness a remarkable performance at the Senior Play, a down-to-earth, true-to-life tale of the Jones Family. Under Miss Wildi's direction, it was a great success. All-in-all, we feel that we have completed the best years of our life, due to the willingness of the teachers to instruct us morally and educationally, and the friendship and good will of our upper and lower classmen. We bid you adieu!

A dignified group of young people, the Juniors, all looked forward to upholding their ideals and goals for the third year. They carried out their class activities willingly. With enthusiastic participation in the Scrap Drive, they came near to being victorious.

The Seniors are looking forward to an enjoyable Junior-Senior Banquet due to the tireless efforts of the Juniors.

ON TO VICTORY!!

CALENDAR

- September 1 The sun was shining brightly as the students of the Highland Public School once again took up their studies for the year 1942-1943.
- 18 Tonight our Bulldogs met the Collinsville football team composed of men not yet on the Varsity squad. The final score was 39 to 7; Collinsville.
- 21 Greenville Lake saw the FFA and their dates enjoy an outing of boating and eating, plus all the other happenings of a picnic.
- 25 At the Boys' mixer, the Freshmen, willing guests of the upperclassmen, partook of the excellent program prepared for them and pronounced it the best ever.
- 26 After a long and tiring bicycle hike to Marine, the GAA indulged in a delicious weiner roast.
- October 1 The Bulldogs and the Edwardsville B-Team Tigers met in football for the first time. Highland came off the victor, 14 to 2.
- 12 The Bellville B-Team suffered a 14 to 0 defeat at the hands of our boys today. This took the sting from our defeat by them last season.
- 16 69 history students today answered ten questions on the course of the war. The "kids" proved they were at least average.
- 17 Highland played the best game of the season in defeating Roxanna 18 to 6. It was the seniors' last football game and the entire team played to win for them.
- 23 Highland's scrap drive ends with the mighty seniors the victors and now entitled to a scrap party. The total amount of scrap collected by our school exceeded 350,000 pounds.
- 24 At the invitation of our GAA, girls from various towns came to Highland for a Play Day. The several games played enabled the girls to work up good appetites to do justice to the lunch prepared for them. Songs and sketches completed a very enjoyable day.
- 28 A faculty party was given in honor of Mr. Davis, our coach, who has received a commission in the United States Navy. Mr. Davis expressed his thanks for the gift of the athletic teams in no uncertain terms.
- 30 The GAA gave a Halloween party, complete with spooks, jack-o-lanterns, corn shocks, and weird shadows. Good music by our high school orchestra and well planned games helped the plentiful refreshments to taste all the better. The large attendance agreed it was a very good party.
- November 5-6 As the high school teachers attended the Conference at the U of I, and
-7 the grade teachers visited various schools, we had a holiday.
- 11 The bands and glee clubs of both schools participated in the annual Armistice Day program given in our gym.
- 12 This date marks a great deal of fun for everyone, for it was the GAA initiation day. New members came to school dressed as all kinds of queer characters. After a trying day of bowing to the commands given by the older members, everyone attended a pot-luck supper and a formal induction.
- 13 Brr! It's Friday the 13th and the entire assembly was chilled by the dire predictions of Junior Essenpreis. In addition if we all follow the way Shirley Hug made her sales in the dramatics club play, "Selling Our Way Through Life" will be quite easy.....and how!!
- 19 The Senior play!! And what a play! It was packed full of humor and comedy. The plot concerned the problems of the Jones family; the title being "Almost Summer."

The Class of 1945, feeling a sense of superiority toward the innocent Freshmen, began vigorously to put themselves in the highlights. To prove that they could organize and carry out social entertainment, they gave an all-school party after a basketball game. A large number of students attended. The main entertainment was provided by the school orchestra.

The Sophomores took part in athletics and educational undertakings as well as social activities.

- November 20 The first basketball game of the season, for the Highland Bulldogs, was played in the Highland Gym against the Woodriver Oilers. Woodriver earned an easy victory.
- 25 In the Dramatics Club assembly, several cute numbers sold several cute numbers in, "Joan Makes A Sale."
- 26- Thanksgiving, and a two day holiday for us. The dinners must have been 27 good and heavy for our Bulldogs lost badly to the Edwardsville Tigers.
- December 4 Again the Bulldogs suffer a defeat, this time at the hands of the boys from Mulberry Grove.
- 8 At last! The Bulldogs tangle with the St. Paul Trojans and prove their conquerors.
- 10 The Home Ec Club tonite invited anyone who wished a good chili supper, to come out to the cafeteria and their wish would be fulfilled.
- 18 The Spanish class, writing, directing, acting, and producing their own classic, "Salud Turistos, (Greetings, Tourists), received the plaudits of our students and a write-up in a paper in South Texas for their fine efforts.
- 18 After beating the Roxanna basketball team in a close, last minute race, the team, and many other students, attended a party sponsored by the Sophomores.
- 21 Today the Penny Milk program went into effect in our school cafeteria. For a penny, any student may now purchase a half pint of good, wholesome milk. This will provide an enjoyable, healthful, and inexpensive drink for our pupils.
- 23 Hooray! The Faculty surprised the high school student body with a gift, a party, held during the morning. The news that school was out for the Christmas vacation at noon, provided a good pep tonic to all.
- 29 Against those redoubtable Alumni, our Bulldogs proved to be the lesser foe. The final score was 34 to 32.
- January 4 Greatly refreshed and enthused after the Christmas vacation, our students tripped back happily.
- 8 The Bulldogs were the undoing of the Pocy team in a game played there. The final score was much in our favor.
- 15 In spite of our team's best effort, the Mulberry boys defeated us for the second time in a low scoring game.
- 19 In a double-header, St. Jacob and Litchfield versus Highland, our boys were able to defeat St. Jacob, but lost to the Litchfield team.
- 20- Oh Worry! Semester Exams.
21
- 22 Staunchly withstanding a 50 mile trip, vitamin pills, a stuffy gym, and a fog so thick several chunks stuck in the carburetor, our boys beat Nashville by one point. The team will remember the two hour session in front of, over, and behind the counter in that Carlyle cafe.
- 27 Another teacher, Mr. Homann, leaves for the Navy.
- 29 Those Greenville Flyers flew through our team in defeating them very soundly. After the game the Sophomores sponsored a party.
- February 1 The HHS Orchestra provided the chamber music at the Father-Scout banquet held at the Congregational Church.
- 2 At the class meeting held today, representatives to the student council were elected.
- 5 In a return match, Pocy again lost to the Bulldogs.
- 6 The Bulldogs lost to Lebanon. Could it be they were too tired from the

The Freshies meekly entered their first year of high school but soon became accustomed to their new educational and social life. They contributed much to athletic and social clubs with a high representation of talented ability. The highest peak of their social activities was a Valentine party, at which the Queen of Hearts, Jeanne Hebrank, was crowned. They ended their year with eager thoughts of next year, when they will be looked up to by the new Freshmen.

game last night with Pocy?

- February 10 Jeanne Hebrank was elected the Queen of Hearts at the traditional Valentine party given by the Freshmen.
- 11 In the return game of the Roxana-Highland series at Roxana, the Bulldogs staggered from another loss.
- 12 At the annual Faculty-Board Dinner Dance, the music was provided by the Sextette, Mr. Smith and the HHS Orchestra.
- 16 Eleven years of victories and then this, Highland loses to the St. Paul Trojans.
- 17 Our boys must have been disgusted with last nights showing, for they roared right back today and trounced Alhambra 64 to 35.
- 18 The advanced shop class tonight gave a banquet fit for a king. Each member brought a date to their savory chicken dinner. After the meal served in the cafeteria, dancing took place on the stage and ...?
- 19 In a close game, the Bulldogs were defeated by the Nashville quintet in an overtime period. The seniors held their scrap drive party after the game; the dancing, cards, and refreshments being enjoyed but by few.
- 26 The Highland Grads succumbed to the more vicious attack of their opponents, men now living in Highland but graduating from other schools. A crowd of over 1,000 people saw the interesting game and, at the same time, paid about $300 to the Red Cross.
- March 2 At the sectional wrestling meet, Vernon Williman won first place, and the privilege of going to the state meet.
- 2 The Hex was on us. We lost to the St. Paul Trojans once again in the all important Regional Meet.
- 5-6 Shorty, wrestling the champion of last year, was beaten by three points but gained a second place award.
- 11- Highland played host to the visiting basketball teams, playing in the
- 12 Sectional tournament. Woodriver beat Greenville by five points to win the trophy and go on to the state tournament.
- 15 The PTA heard the Grade and High School Bands play for their benefit. The clarinet quartette played several numbers as well.
- 19 Snow White and Her Seven Dwarfs visited Highland this evening when the Grade School presented their play of that title.
- 23 The Juniors, in anticipation of their Senior year, expressed their wish for a class ring and met today to choose one. The Ambassador, a ring from Jostens, won their nomination.
- 26 Those up and coming Juniors lived up to all expectations when they presented their well acted play to the public. See you next year.
- April 1 At the Home Ec meeting, an interesting scavenger hunt was held. We hope all the people received their correct articles again.
- 15 Group singing, talks, and an excellent dinner were on hand for the FFA boys and their Dads. The occasion--the annual Father and Son Banquet.
- 15- Those mighty seniors again showed their skill and brawn in defeating
- 16 all comers in the prennial intramural basketball brawl. Highland was well represented by Laverne Casper.
- 19 Mr. Smith, our band director, was today inducted into the army. He is the fifth male teacher from our school to serve his country.
- 30 The Highland Glee Clubs, under Miss Lindsay's direction, presented a pageant of songs and skits ranging from the time of the covered wagon to our modern victory tunes and popular lyrics. The excellence of the entire program was the result of hard work by both cast and director. Oh woe! That IRIS deadline is here----FINIS

CAPT. SIEGRIST

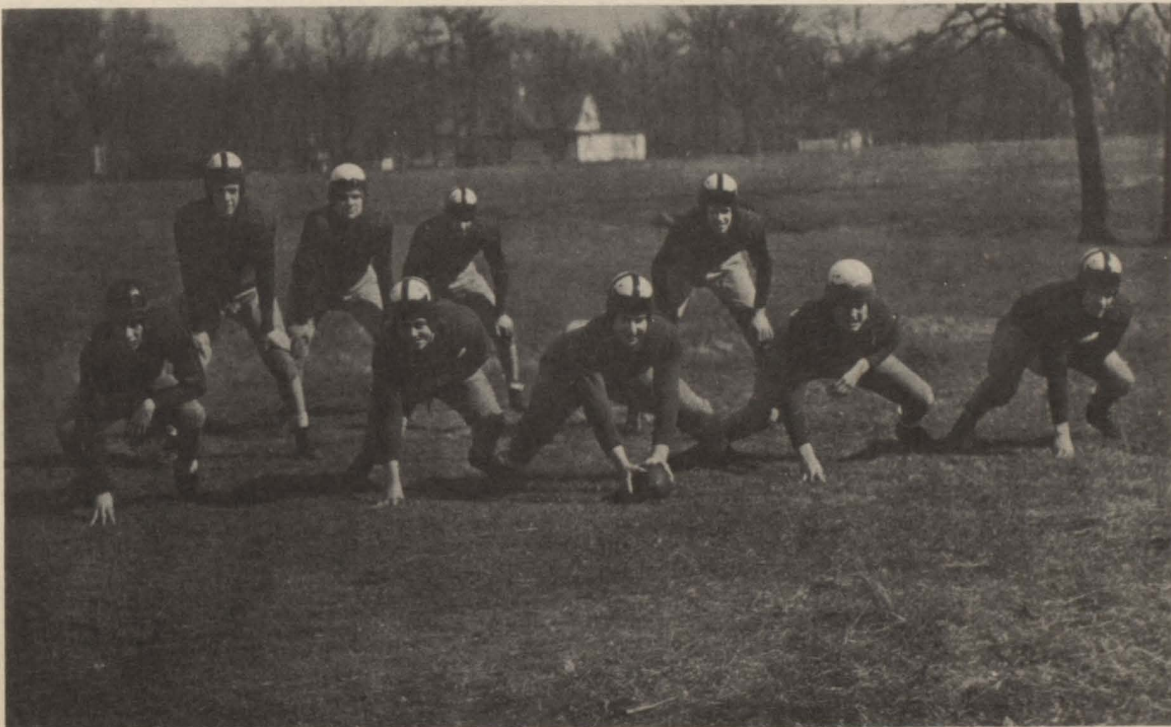

COACH DAVIS

DIG IN JOHNNY BOY!

An enthusiastic squad of twenty-two moleskin clad boys reported to coach Gwen Davis on the eve of the 1942 football season. Six of the boys had got their letters and were able to teach the beginners a few tricks of the trade. We are sure all the boys profited by the guidance of a coach who put the making of men before the winning of games. (About 75 per cent of the victories have been on Highland's side of the ledger.)

STUCKWISCH OFF TACKLE

NO. 44--END RUN

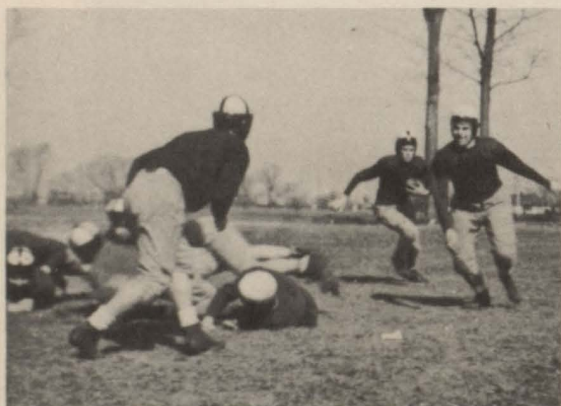

The 1942 football season was officially ushered in on September 18, when a fighting Highland team was defeated by a more experienced Collinsville crew by the score of 39 to 7.

This early defeat did not seem to dampen the spirits of the Highland boys however, as they surged back to defeat the Edwardsville B team in the following game, 14 to 2.

With this taste of victory, Highland went on to whitewash Belleville's B team by the score of 14 to 0.

While four seniors played their final game under Coach Davis, the Highland eleven completed the season by trouncing Roxana to the tune of 18 to 6.

The fast charging line, spearheaded by three lettermen, a trio of speedy backs, and the power and spark of Capt. Paul Siegrist brought the Bulldogs through all their games with little to be desired.

 Front Row: Stuckwisch, Werner, Gindler, Siegrist, Rutz, and Blattner.

With a brand new coach, and a rather unsteady outlook for high school athletics, the Highland Bulldogs began the 1942-43 basketball season. After a rather weak start against strong fives, the team began to function, beating St. Paul, Roxana, and Pocahontas in succession, before losing to Mulberry Grove. In the later games the team faltered, feeling keenly the loss of Stuckwisch, a consistent scorer, and Co-Capt. Siegrist, who seemed to hold the team together. Much should be said for Coach Revelle, who did a good job in establishing his system of play in the Highland team.

READY TO GO!

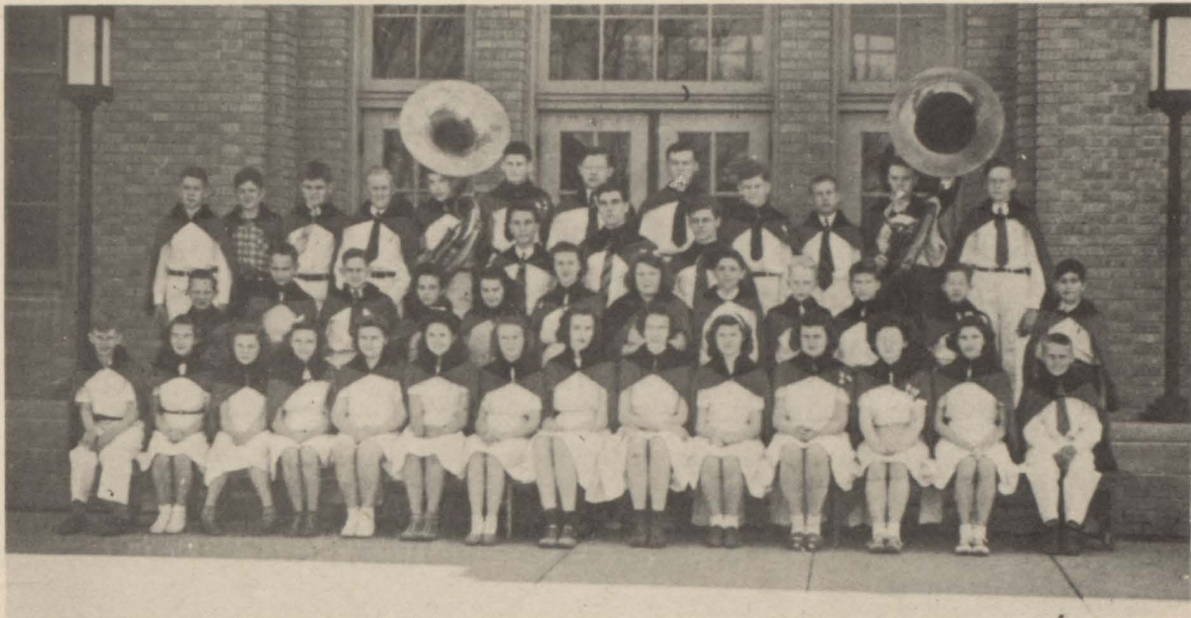

A LITTLE WORK, A LITTLE PLAY,
TO KEEP US GOING---

BAND

Due to travel restrictions imposed by the war, all band contests were canceled this year. This has cut the scope of the band activities to concerts in our home town. In cooperation with the Glee Club, a very successful Christmas concert was presented for all who came. The band was also the guest of the PTA at the March Meeting, playing for their enjoyment. At both these concerts, the clarinet quartette played quite well.

The school orchestra, organized successfully this year with the very able assistance of Mr. Smith, has had a very busy season. In addition to rhythmizing for the two class plays, the Christmas, GAA, Freshman and Sophomore parties, the orchestra, a band without a name, soothed jangled nerves at two out-of-school parties: the Scout-Father banquet in February, and the annual Faculty-Board dinner-dance of the same month.

H.H.S. Orchestra

The entire band, as well as the school, will miss our director a great deal next year. Mr. Smith is another one of our faculty who has been called to the colors.

GLEE CLUB

This year the Glee Club has increased its membership, and has taken part in several activities.

On April 30, the entire group, under the direction of Miss Helen Lindsay, gave the pageant "America Sings", a program presenting songs from the age of the covered wagon, to the present day of victory tunes and modern American music.

There were no singing festivals or contests held this year, so the club devoted much time to learning modern American songs.

The picture below is a scene from "Gay Nineties." Under the big straw hats you will find Jeanne Hebrank, Betty Werner, Shirley Hug, and Estelle Dill. Behind the handle-bar mustaches are Vaughn Hunkins, Junior Isert Paul Siegrist, and Jim Gindler.

A desire for variety in modern music brought about the organization of the Girls Sextette. They have been active throughout the year singing at various social clubs, meetings and school activities. From left to right: Shirley Stuckwisch, Leona Casper June Blacet, Estelle Dill, Jean Hitz and Jeanne Hebrank.

"Oh bury me not, on the lone prairie"---five roaming cowboys, Tumble Weed, The Lone Ranger, Sage Brush, Lone Wolf, and Dead Eye Dick, alias: Jim Rutz, Morris Tschannen, Junior Essenpreis, Jim Werner, and Dick Indermill.

The members of the Girls Athletic Association have taken part in various activities, including baseball, basketball, hiking, bowling, and tumbling.

Throughout the year the girls have given parties, the Halloween party being very successful. With the effects of Halloween many pranks were played in the darkness of the gym. The high school orchestra provided entertainment and dance music for the evening.

This fall the Highland G.A.A. held a "Play Day" and invited girls from the Trenton, Greenville and New Baden clubs. The theme for the day was airplanes and in connection with the victory program. All of the girls took part in the different sports of the "Play Day."

This Club was organized to promote fellowship
Among the girls of the Home Economics Department.

Among their social events for the year were a Chili Supper and an April Fool's Day

DRAMATICS

This year everyone decided that the assemblies needed something besides announcements and the same dry, old procedures; therefore an organization was instituted, which was named "The Dramatics Club." Miss Wildi was appointed sponsor and the club began in earnest to provide entertainment for the next assembly. On November 13, Junior Essenpreis, dressed as a crystal-ball gazer, predicted the future of several students and faculty members. A short play was given in which Shirley Hug presented her acting ability.

Several short plays were given in various assemblies that proved not only amusing but also educational.

Let's hope the organization remains intact next year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was inaugurated early in the second semester under the supervision of Mr. W. L. Waxler. Two members of each class were elected by the various classes to represent them in the Council. They were: Seniors--James Gindler, who was elected President, and Leona Casper; Juniors--Clinton Kerin, elected Vice-President, and Shirley Mueller; Sophomores--Eileen Bircher, elected Secretary, and Donald Rikli; Freshmen--Marian Michael, elected Treasurer, and Richard Federer. Miss Wildt was elected sponsor by the Council members.

The Council decided to sponsor the Red Cross Emergency Survey at its first meeting, and since then has been the recipient of such funds as were amassed from the Alhambra-Highland basketball game, a check room for the Sectional Basketball Tournament, and an Inter-Class Basketball Tournament, of which the Seniors, under the leadership of Coach Kenneth Stuckwisch and Captain Roland Harris, were the victors.

Clinton Kerin, Eileen Bircher, Marian Michael, Richard Federer, and Mr. Waxler acted as Highland's Student Council representatives to the State Student Council Convention held in Peoria, April 30-May 1.

THE SENIOR CHAMPS

FFA

The FFA began the year with an enrollment of thirty-five members. Following the example of other years, many field trips, the purpose of which is to acquaint the boys with actual farming operations and conditions, were made to various farms within the neighboring vicinity.

The Annual Father and Son Banquet marked the climax of the FFA's social functionings. As usual, it was crowned with its deserved success.

FFA OFFICERS

HARD WORKERS

The advanced shop class started its program by building a small shed behind the band building to provide for the keeping of lawn tools etc. This work gave everyone experience in construction work. From there they turned patriotic and started the production of hog houses, feeders, and brooder houses, so as to provide farmers with some necessary equipment needed in producing the food of America. Besides the many houses and feeders they also finished cabinets and other small items of wood work to be used in homes and offices. Towards the end of the term the class lost a very good instructor, Mr. Francis Loudon, who had given his services for two and a half years. But to the class's advantage it was fortunate enough to get Mr. Pulliam, who has done much to make the year a successful one for the class.

MR. LOUDON

ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE..

ALMOST SUMMER

The Senior Class had the privilege of presenting the three-act comedy, "Almost Summer", by Christopher Sergel. The play centered about Paul Jones, who, unless he passed his history exam with an extremely high mark, would have to journey to summer school instead of the lakes. This would leave his rival a whole summer to take his girl away from him, but Paul decides he's "gotta fight for his woman," but only succeeds in getting into more trouble.

WINGS OVER WASHINGTON

In the laboratory of his island home Dr. Hardy worked feverishly to complete the formula of his new secret weapon, when Nora, the housemaid, falls dead--poisoned! A small-town detective takes over and succeeds only in adding to the confusion. Thus the plot of Clark Willard's mystery-comedy, "Wings Over Washington", thickens; and its unraveling by the Junior Class Play Cast held the audience in suspense.

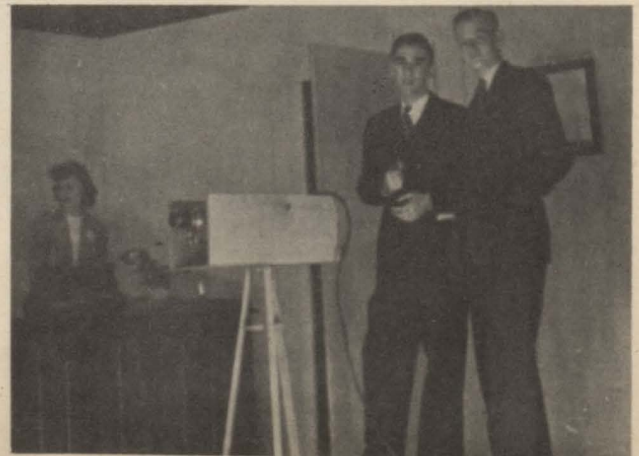

"Wings Over Washington", under the able direction of Miss Wildi and Miss Dowdy, was presented March 26. It represented the first attempt of the Junior Class in the field of drama, and was accepted with great favor.
